

How are you marking World Environment Day
on 5 June?

Come share it with us.

Free entrance & apéros!

We'll play the SDGs Game

We'll simulate how the world could develop between now and 2030 - if it was us taking action.

In this collaborative game developed in Japan, we can discover more about the world we live in and about ourselves.

We'll meet our armchair environmentalist

Over an apero
we'll discover The Climate Apology.

This self-reflection tool helps us recognise our excuses,
and strengthen our motivation
to protect the climate future
of our loved ones.

Together, we've got this

Hosted by Louise and Siro KGHJ Johannes

@ Haus der Bewegungen
Weylerstrasse 5, 3014 Bern
6 - 9pm

No specific skills or knowledge required.

Please register until June 4th here.

Inputs in English with possible translation, discussion in English & German.
